- students will be evaluated by teacher using a rubric*
- rubrics can be teacher generated, or generated together with students or can be a rubric that you use already for oral presentations.
- Please see Learning plan for more details
- Teacher developed rubric for performance task including oral and cultural components
- Rubric: Create a rubric which evaluates both French oral language skills and the cultural message in the story. Reflective process should also be used
These learning events/activities are suggested activities. Some activities may span over several lessons. Teachers should add, revise, and adapt based on the needs of their students, their own personal preferences for resources, and a variety of instructional techniques.

Activity 1: Why do we tell stories?
1. Show students examples of unique and inspiring ways to tell stories (consider your audience); song, dance, puppet shadow, books, oral history etc… (A) (M)
2. Ensure that brainstorming ideas are comprised as a “French Word Wall” for future reference to high-frequency words used in this unit. (A) (M)
3. Students should reflect on; favourite stories, stories they have never forgotten, why they love stories, their favourite way to listen to, read, view stories are. (M)

Formative Task: Students create a reflective document based on favourite story memory. (M)

Activity 2: What is culture? What is your culture?
1. How do we define culture? Students will likely discuss; food, traditions, holidays, music, celebrations etc… (A)
2. Students will reflect on the culture of; their home, their school, sports teams, classrooms etc… (M) (T)

Activity 3: Reading of First Nations Story “La Danse D’Anisha”
1. Review reading strategies with students. Use of cognates, images, familiar words, voice intonation and teacher gestures will help ensure comprehension of text. Images will help students with less French Fluency get the gist of the text. (A)
2. Use prediction activity to ensure students use the images as their first tool. (A)
3. Teacher guided reading of La Danse D’Anisha. Students should repeat and practice words that might be useful in their Performance task. (A)

Formative Task: Students will re-encast their favourite part of the story and their peers can guess the part. A tableau format is useful for students with less French Fluency. (A)
4. Use vocabulary warm up games (charades etc…) at the beginning of subsequent lessons to ensure that students retain new vocabulary throughout the unit. (A)

Activity 4: Student creation of story that explores an aspect of culture
1. Students will choose between creating their own cultural story or choose to re-encast a story that they already know or is provided for them. (This will depend on the level of French Fluency in your classroom.) (T)
2. Students should be encouraged to include previously acquired vocabulary in their skits, but also to use gesture and image to relay their messages. (A) (T)
3. Formative Task: students should reflect on their cultural message and ensure that it will be clear to their audience. My message is: My audience will understand my message through___________________. (A) (T)
4. Students should re-act on their peers work in a reflective task that demonstrates how their cultural identity is explored through story. (T)
5. Summative Task: Teacher evaluation: rubric that focuses on both oral use of French language and clarity of cultural message and above all an understand. Teachers can include written high-frequency words as part of evaluation. Also, evaluation of the students reflective process. (T)

Peer evaluation: rubric that focuses on clarity of cultural message similar to above formative task. (T)
